

ABSTRACT

Masochism Sexual Disorder of the Main Characters “Fifty Shades of Grey”

Novel’s by E.L. James

Rafinda Clarisa Noor

16111049

*Person with Masochism must receive pain in her or his sexual activity and does not realize that she or he has abnormal sexual disorder. Therefore, this research aims to discuss about the Masochism Sexual Disorder in the main character Anastasia Steele in the novel Fifty Shades of Grey. The objectives of this study are in order to find the characteristics of Masochism that described in Anastasia character.*

*This research used descriptive qualitative method typically library research with textual analysis since data of this research are in the form of sentences and dialogues. The primary data source is novel Fifty Shades of Grey novel. This research used psychology of literature as the approach and used Masochism theory by Chaplin (1981).*

The result of this research shows that Masochism characteristics are clearly described in Anastasia Steele character in which she became Masochism because she loved Christian Grey, the love itself leads her to have willingness to suffer for Grey, and she could not achieve her orgasm without receiving pain and shame.

Keywords: Anastasia Steele, Fifty Shades of Grey, Masochism, Psychology of Literature